Series Information: The Annual Survey of Jails, formerly titled National Survey of Jails, is the only data collection effort that provides an annual source of data on local jails and jail inmates. The series was begun in 1982 by the Bureau of Justice Statistics with data collected by the Bureau of the Census. Local jails are locally-operated correctional facilities that confine persons before or after adjudication. Inmates sentenced to jails usually have a sentence of a year or less, but jails also incarcerate persons in a wide variety of other categories. Data on the size of the jail population and selected inmate characteristics are obtained every five to six years from the Census of Jails. In each of the years between the full censuses, a sample survey of jails is conducted to estimate baseline characteristics of the nation's jails and inmates housed in these jails. Data are supplied on admissions and releases, growth in the number of jail facilities, changes in their rated capacities and level of occupancy, growth in the population supervised in the community, changes in methods of community supervision, and crowding issues. The data are intended for a variety of users, including federal and state agencies, local officials in conjunction with jail administrators, researchers, planners, and the public.

Years Produced: Annually, except every 5th year when the National Jail Census is produced.

The Annual Survey of Jails (ASJ) is the only data collection effort that provides an annual source of data on local jails and jail inmates. Data on the size of the jail population and selected inmate characteristics are obtained every five to six years from the Census of Jails. In each of the years between the full censuses, a sample survey of jails is conducted to estimate baseline characteristics of the Nation's jails and inmates housed in these jails. The 2007 Annual Survey of Jails is the 20th such survey in a series begun in 1982.

The ASJ supplies data on characteristics of jails such as admissions and releases, growth in the number of jail facilities, changes in their rated capacities and level of occupancy, growth in the population supervised in the community, changes in methods of community supervision, and crowding issues. The ASJ also provides information on changes in the demographics of the jail population, supervision status of persons held, and a count of non-citizens in custody.

The data presented in this study were collected in the Annual Survey of Jails, 2007. These data are used to track growth in the number of jails and the capacities nationally, changes in the demographics of the jail population and supervision status of persons held, the prevalence of crowding issues, and a count of non-U.S. citizens within the jail population. The data are intended for a variety of users, including Federal and State agencies, local officials in conjunction with jail administrators, researchers, planners, and the public. The reference date for the survey is June 29, 2007.

Jails are locally-operated correctional facilities that confine persons before or after adjudication. Inmates sentenced to jails usually have a sentence of a year or less, but jails also incarcerate persons in a wide variety of other categories. Local jails:

- receive individuals pending arraignment and hold them awaiting trial, conviction, or sentencing,
- readmit probation, parole, and bail-bond violators and absconders,
- temporarily detain juveniles pending transfer to juvenile authorities,
- hold mentally ill persons pending their movement to appropriate health facilities,
- hold individuals for the military, for protective custody, for contempt, and for the courts as witnesses,
- release convicted inmates to the community upon completion of sentence,
- transfer inmates for Federal, State, or other authorities,
- house inmates for Federal, State, or other authorities because of crowding of their facilities,
- relinquish custody of temporary detainees to juvenile and medical authorities,
- sometimes operate community-based programs as alternatives to incarceration,
- and hold inmates sentenced to short terms (generally less than one year).

DEFINITION OF TERMS

The following are terms used in the codebook:

- Local jail: A confinement facility usually administered by a local law enforcement agency, intended for adults but sometimes also containing juveniles, that holds persons detained pending adjudication and/or persons committed after adjudication for sentences usually a year or less. Excluded from the survey are temporary holding or lockup facilities that are not part of a combined function of a jail jurisdiction, from which inmates are usually transferred within 72 hours and not held beyond arraignment.
- Jurisdiction: A county (parish in Louisiana), municipality, township, or regional authority that administers one or more local jails.
- Regional jail: A jail in which two or more jurisdictions have a formal agreement to operate the facility.
- Juvenile: A person subject to the exercise of juvenile court jurisdiction for the purposes of adjudication and treatment based on the age and offense limitations as defined by state law. For the purposes of this report, a person of juvenile age is considered a juvenile even though they may be tried as an adult in criminal court.
- Adult criminal offender: A person subject to the original jurisdiction of the criminal court rather than the juvenile court because at the time of the offense the person was above a statutory age limit.
- Average daily population: To calculate the average daily population respondents were instructed to add the number of persons for each day during the period July 1, 2006 to June 30, 2007, and to divide the result by 365.

Notes

JAIL IDENTIFICATION (JURDID) AND THE FEDERAL INFORMATION PROCESSING STANDARDS (FIPS CODE)

The first 9 digits of the jail identification code (JURDID) are the government identification codes that the U.S. Census Bureau uses to identify governments in the United States. The GID maintains the name and unique identification code for all local governments in the United States, based on the 2007 Census of Governments and is the Census Bureau's master list of all governments in the United States. The GID code identifies the location of governments, whether they are state, county, city, place, or municipality.

An alternative scheme for identifying places is the Federal Information Processing Standards (or FIPS) codes, which are a standardized set of codes issued by the National Institute of Standards and Technology to ensure uniform identification of geographic entities throughout all federal government agencies. The entities covered under the FIPS include states and equivalent entities, counties, named populated and related location entities (such as places and county subdivisions) as well as American Indian and Alaska Native areas. More information about FIPS codes as well as the identifications of areas under FIPS can be found at http://www.census.gov/geo/www/fips/fips.html.

The GID code is not equivalent to the FIPS codes. The Census Bureau provides a crosswalk between the GID codes and FIPS codes through its integrated directory, which can be found at http://harvester.census.gov/gid/gid_07/options.html.

Methodology and Processing

Data Collection Methodology

Time Method:               Cross-section

Data Collector:             United States Department of Commerce. Bureau of the Census

Sampling Procedure:     Based on information from the 2005 Census of Jail Inmates, a sample of jail jurisdictions was selected for the 2007 survey. The sample included all public and private jails in 874 selected jail jurisdictions (in which there were a total of 936 reporting units) and 63 regional jails. Sampling Procedure: The universe included all jail jurisdictions (i.e., counties, municipalities, boroughs, etc.) identified through the 2005 Census of Jail Inmates.

The 2005 Average Daily Population (ADP) was used to stratify the sample, with allocation to the strata based on the 2005 one-day count, 1999 one-day count, and the 1999 ADP. Other 2005 variables were also considered in the final allocation: confined adult males, confined adult females, confined Whites, confined Blacks, confined Hispanics, confined males, confined females, and confined adults. Large Jails and regional jails were in the sample with certainty.

In drawing the sample, jail jurisdictions were first stratified into two groups: single-jurisdiction jails and regional jails. The entire population of regional jails (63) was included in the survey. Other jail jurisdictions included with certainty (269) were those that (1) held at least one juvenile inmate at the time of the 2005 Census of Jail Inmates and that had an average daily population of 500 or more inmates during the 12 months ending June 30, 2005, or (2) held only adults and the average daily inmate population was 750 or more. The remaining jurisdictions were then further stratified into two groups: jurisdictions with jails authorized to hold juveniles and jurisdictions with jails holding adults only. The remaining jurisdictions were then selected from eight strata using stratified probability sampling procedures. See appended table- Sample Design of the 2007 Annual Survey of Jails.

Mode of Data Collection:    mailed questionnaires and web option

Type of Research Instrument:    Structured

Actions to Minimize Losses:    Data were obtained by mailed questionnaires and web form reporting. The ASJ collection began in June of 2007, and ended in November of the same year. The response rate for the survey was 100% for the following critical data items: confined persons (CONFPOP), number of adult male and adult female inmates (ADMALE, ADFEML), average daily population (ADP), and total rated capacity of jails (RATCAP). Extensive follow-up, including additional mail and fax requests and repeated telephone contacts, resulted in a nearly 100% response rate for the number of juvenile male and juvenile female inmates (JUVMALE, JUVFEML), and nearly 90% for the number of inmates by race and Hispanic origin (WHITE, BLACK, HISP, AMINDALK, ASIAN, HAWPAC, TWORACE) and for the number of male and female inmates by conviction status (CONVMALE, CONVFML, UNCONVML, UNCONVFM).

Notes

When calculating the total number of persons supervised but not confined, please use the created variable NCONPOP2. Excluded are inmates who participated in weekend programs that allow offenders to serve their sentences of confinement only on weekends (e.g., Friday-Sunday). This was created to reflect reporting changes in specific non-confined variables and will allow the user to reproduce figures found in BJS publications:

NCONPOP2=ELECMON+HOMDTN+COMMSVC+DAYRPTG+PRETSUP+WKPROG+DRUGPROG+OTRPROG

JUVENILES

State statutes and judicial practices allow juveniles to be incarcerated in adult jails under a variety of circumstances. Because of the differing statutes and practices, however, accurate and comparable data on juveniles are difficult to collect.

Beginning in 1994 the ASJ provided estimates of the total number of jail inmates under age 18, the number held as adults, and the number held as juveniles. New sampling procedures were also introduced in 1994 to minimize the standard errors of these estimates. By stratifying jurisdictions based on the authority to house juveniles, the precision of the juvenile counts was improved. (See methodology section of Prisoner and Jail Inmates at Midyear 1998).

CHANGES TO THE ANNUAL SURVEY OF JAILS FORM

Beginning with the 2003 survey and again in 2007, item 8 of the ASJ instrument regarding inmates held in jail for other authorities was revised to include more detail on the types of Federal authorities that had inmates housed in local jails. Previous versions of the questionnaire asked if the jail jurisdiction being surveyed held inmates for Federal authorities, to include (but not specify counts individually for) those held for the U.S. Marshal's Service, the Federal Bureau of Prisons, U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, Bureau of Indian Affairs, or other-specify. The 2003 through 2007 surveys ask the jail facility to identify how many were held for each of these entities, individually, as opposed to condensing them into a single "Federal authorities" category. Beginning with the 2005 Census of Jail Inmates and again in the 2006 and 2007 Annual Survey of Jails, the new item 'two or more races' was added to the race category.

Notes

AGGREGATING JAIL FACILITY AND RESPONDENT RECORDS INTO JAIL JURISDICTIONS:

In its statistics on jails, BJS reports data for jail jurisdictions. (See, for example table 5 in Jail Inmates at Midyear 2007, NCJ 221945, which reports data for the 50 largest jail jurisdictions in the nation.) A jail jurisdiction (typically a county) represents the entity that is responsible for managing the jail facilities under its authority. Jail jurisdictions may contain multiple facilities and/or multiple facility operators (i.e., both county and privately operated facilities). In the Annual Survey of Jails, BJS obtains data from jails responding or reporting units. For example, four reporting units in Allegheny County (PA) represent a single jail jurisdiction. BJS collapses the reporting units into the appropriate single jail jurisdiction.

Jail reporting units are represented by a 21-digit number (FACLID21). The first nine digits in FACLID21 encompass the jurisdiction code which must match in order to collapse the individual file (936 cases) into a single jail jurisdiction file (874 cases). The 9-digit jurisdiction ID variable (JURDID) is included in the dataset. The privately operated facilities (indicated by "8" in the third position in FACLID21) were recoded into the appropriate county or city jurisdiction.

Steps to aggregate the data into 874 jail jurisdictions:

1. Sort file by JURDID.

2. JURDID should be utilized as the break variable in order to match the 9-digit ID. With the exception of the variable WEIGHT, collapsing the data to produce a single jail jurisdiction record is performed by aggregating the absolute sum of the data variables in the file. The WEIGHT variable should be aggregated based on the average (mean) calculation, because the weight for the multiple reporting units reflects the weight given at the jurisdiction level when the sample was drawn. Collapsing the data into the jurisdiction level can be conducted in statistical programs including for example, SPSS (such as the "aggregate" function) or SAS (such as PROC SUMMARY or PROC MEANS function), using the JURDID variable as the classification variable.

Caution: Aggregating the flag items (0=Actual, 1=Estimate, 8=Not applicable and 9=Unknown) for the multiple reporting units into a single jurisdiction may result in numbers that differ from the original flag item. For example, if two reporting units each reported an unknown in the individual file, after aggregating the data, the jurisdiction level flag item will result in the number "18". Also, there are multiple variables in the dataset (i.e., city and facility name, other specifies) which are text and do not aggregate.

BJS METHOD OF CREATING THE JURISDICTION LEVEL FILE; HOW BJS MATCHED THE PRIVATELY OPERATED FACILITIES TO THE APPROPRIATE JAIL JURISDICTION:

The sample for the 2007 Annual Survey of Jails includes all publicly- and privately-operated jails in a sample of jail jurisdictions. BJS obtained data from 936 reporting units that represented 874 jurisdictions in the sample. The sample of jail jurisdictions was distributed as follows:

- 808 jail jurisdictions: Data was obtained from a single county or city government data provider;
- 39 jail jurisdictions: Data was provided by multiple providers from county or city operated facilities; and
- 27 jail jurisdictions: Data was obtained from privately operated facilities.

With the exception of two reporting units, the third position of the JURDID for the single jurisdictions in which data were obtained from multiple respondents was changed to "1", indicating a county government (e.g., 058037037 should be changed to 051037037). For the Marion County Jail II, C.C.A. (158049008) and the Metro Davidson County Detention Facility- C.C.A. (438019003), the third position was changed to "2" which indicates a municipal (city) government.

Note: Two records were not collapsed into a single jail jurisdiction record. These specific jurisdictions have a city or county jail and a regional jail. The regional jail is a separate jurisdiction. To prevent these records from collapsing into a single jurisdiction, BJS changed the JURDID prior to the aggregation step. The records are as follows:

South Fulton Regional Jail- 111060060062000000000 (Changed JURDID to 112060060).

Fulton County- 111060060060000006600 (Did not change JURDID).

Portsmouth City Jail- 472125001061000000000 (Changed JURDID 471125001).

Hampton Roads Regional Jail- 472125001062000000000 (Did not change JURDID).

Estimates of Sampling Error:

Because ASJ estimates are based on a sample survey, they may differ from the results of conducting a complete census. Different samples could yield somewhat different results. There are two kinds of error associated with survey data: non-sampling and sampling error.

In any survey the full extent of the non-sampling error is never known. Non-sampling error can be attributed to many sources, such as improper reporting, differences in the interpretation of questions among respondents, non-response, and data-processing errors.

Sampling error is the variation that may occur by chance because a sample rather than a complete enumeration was conducted. Standard error is a measure of the variation among the estimates from all possible samples, stating the precision with which an estimate from a particular sample approximates the average of all possible samples. The appended standard error table represents the error surrounding the estimates of several key variables.

To generate standard errors, composite variables were created using a standard statistical software package (SPSS). The following created variables consist of:

Gender - Males: ADMALE + JUVMALE

Gender - Females: ADFEML + JUVFEML

Adults: ADMALE + ADFEML

Juveniles - Held as adults: JUVADS

Juveniles - Held as juveniles: JUVMALE +JUVFEML - JUVADS

Race - Other: AMINDALK+ASIAN+HAWPAC

Adult conviction status - Convicted: CONVMALE + CONVFML

Adult conviction status - Awaiting trial or other unconvicted: UNCONVML + UNCONVFM

After these variables were created the statistical software package SUDAAN was used to generate standard errors. Due to the complex design of the survey, SUDAAN calculated the standard errors while taking into account the stratification of jurisdictions. The data were first sorted to put all jurisdictions into their appropriate stratum. Next, a 'total count' SUDAAN statement was used with the variables Stratum_SUM and PSU_SUM to provide the population (sampling universe) counts and sample counts, respectively. (See program below). Finally the weighted variables were listed in a statement to generate standard errors:

proc descript data="g:err07" filetype=ascii means totals design=strwor ;

NEST Stratum FACLID21 ; totcnt Stratum_SUM PSU_SUM ;

weight Weight ;

var CONFPOP TOTPOP WEEKNDR ADP RATCAP ADULT WHITE BLACK HISP ADMALE ADFEML JUVENILE TRUJUV ADULT MALES FEMALES CONVCTD UNCONV OTHRACE ;

SUDAAN provided sample estimates and estimated standard errors for selected items. (See appended table - Standard Error Estimates for the Annual Survey of Jails, 2007). To construct a 95% confidence interval for any of the estimates provided, multiply the standard error for an estimate by the z-score of 1.96 (for a 95% confidence interval). Then take the result and both add and subtract the result to the sample estimate to generate the confidence interval for that estimate. For example, by taking the estimate 737,912 +- (1.96 x 3,360), a confidence interval of (730,738 to 745,085) can be constructed. This result shows the range of values the sample estimate would take 95 times out of 100 if different samples were drawn. Similar intervals may be constructed around other survey estimates.

Summary statistics (minimum, maximum, mean, median, and standard deviation) may not be available for every variable in the codebook. Conversely, a listing of frequencies in table format may not be present for every variable in the codebook either. However, all variables in the dataset are present and display sufficient information about each variable. These decisions are made intentionally and are at the discretion of the archive producing this codebook.

What types of facilities are included in this survey?

Confinement facilities usually administered by a local law enforcement agency, intended for adults but sometimes holding juveniles.

- INCLUDE jails and city/county correctional centers.

- INCLUDE special jail facilities (e.g., medical/treatment/release centers, halfway houses, and work farms).

- INCLUDE temporary holding or lockup facilities if they are part of your combined function.

- EXCLUDE temporary holding or lockup facilities that are not part of your combined function from which inmates are usually transferred within 72 hours and not held beyond arraignment. If your only function is a temporary holding or lockup facility, DO NOT complete this form – contact Lisa McNelis at 1–800–253–2078.

Burden statement

Under the Paperwork Reduction Act, we cannot ask you to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. The burden of this collection is estimated to average 1 1/4 hours per response, including reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering necessary data, and completing and reviewing this form. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any aspect of this survey, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to the Director, Bureau of Justice Statistics, 810 Seventh Street, NW, Washington, DC 20531. Do not send your completed form to this address.
